Module Seven: Meditating on Scripture is Central to our Worship and our Warfare

Module Eight: Spiritual Growth involves daily Mortification of Sin

Broad Questions for the one to two page papers:

Module One: Explain what it means to 'preach the gospel to ourselves'. Include the benefits of doing so as well as why the gospel must be central in our thoughts and affections.

Module Two: Explain why justification is the foundation for the Christian life. Include why justification dispels our fears and prepares us to live courageously for Christ.

Module Three: Explain why assurance of salvation is commanded in the Word of God. Include the benefits of assurance and how assurance is to be gained.

Module Four: Select four of the eleven marks of salvation from Romans chapter eight. Describe the role of the Holy Spirit in producing these four marks of salvation in the believer.

Module Five: How is Christ's supremacy, preeminence, and majesty meant to affect the believer's worship, adoration, and trust? Include why Paul wrote this epistle to the Colossians.

Module Six: Christ's pattern for His church is disciples making disciples. Explain how we build with Christ. How is 'body life' intended to fulfill the Great Commission (make disciples)?

Module Seven: What is the role of Scripture meditation in our abiding in Christ? How does consistent Scripture meditation affect our love for Christ, trust in Him, and reliance upon Him?

Module Eight: Explain why 'replacement behaviors' are vital to our progress in sanctification. Describe a scriptural strategy for resisting temptation.
